

GARDEN TO TABLE

The colors and patterns of a Mediterranean garden—including grapes, olives, and friendly bees—come home with casually elegant French and Italian table linens, such as these tea towels in hues that range from sunny yellow to sky blue. $16.50, opiohome.com

holiday
GIFT GUIDE

VINTAGE DESIGNS

Swatches of printed fabrics with a midcentury modern look have been transformed into one-of-a-kind earrings rimmed with gold- or silver-plated frames. Their button silhouette is both retro and on-trend. $68, johnwind.com (use code GROW20 for 20 percent off your first order)

HUMMER LURE

This thoughtfully designed feeder attracts hummingbirds while keeping out unwanted ants, hornets, wasps, and other pests. Its large size means more of the birds can sip between refills. $34.95, kscanuck.com

SEATING ARRANGEMENT

The Fermob bistro set (24-inch table and two chairs) turns any garden into a relaxing oasis for dining or just soaking up the fresh air and sunshine. Sturdy but lightweight, the lacquered-steel furniture comes in 24 colors and is easy to move and store safely when the weather becomes frightful. $475 (exclusive for GROW magazine readers), petitjardinenville.us

RELIEF KIT

After long days of digging, weeding, and other chores, many gardeners rely on CBD topicals, teas, and sublingual drops to help ease their aches and pains. An extract from the cannabis plant, CBD is reputed to reduce inflammation. Starting at $25, mitchellsmedicinals.com

MAKING CHANGE

PHS memberships treat the people on your gift list to so many benefits gardeners truly love (including this magazine!)—not to mention the gratification of beautifying our region and providing real solutions to some of society's most pressing issues. Starting at $50, PHSONline.org